Carpenter Paper Company,

Dear Cob:

I wonder if you would be kind enough to send me the names of the outstanding basketball writers on the Oklahoma City papers, as well as the sports writers. I will appreciate it very much.

Cob, I just want a little dope for my publishers. They want to send the sports writers of the papers a copy of my new basketball book, which is due to arrive from the press about December 1.

I will try to remember you with an autographed copy if I can wangle the publishers out of one. They are a tough outfit, you know, but without a doubt we will see that you get one.

Very sincerely yours,
