

I was sorry I didn't see you when I was home during the first part of May. I stopped in your office but you were out. and as I had only 5 days before leaving I didn't quite get back again. These short leaves seem to consist mostly of rushing around to meet old friends - no time at all to relax and really enjoy all their company.

My wife is in Lawrence near (Leamington to be exact) with my folks. She has started to believe what I've told her about the mid-westernness being more friendly and congenial. Also about the superiority of our type of cooking. She writes such to me. Whether it is just to make me happy or whether
