

March 11, 1944.

Mrs. Robert B. Glenn,
301 Washington St.,
Beardstown, Illinois.

Dear Mrs. Glenn:

Mrs. Allen appended a note on the envelope from John, asking that I send the same on to you. I know that a mother is always happy to read a letter from her son, and we were delighted to hear from John. He is always such an aggressive, personable individual. The Allens are very, very fond of him.

I am also enclosing a copy of my letter to him, just for old times' sake. John has such a paternal attitude when he talks to Mrs. Allen about our children. He truly is a grand uncle - and by grand, I mean as an adjective.

We hear a lot about your manning your ship, while John is manning the Corregidor -- two swell pilots, I would say. Mrs. Glenn, I hope that you are feeling well and that it won't be long until you will be relieved of those heavy burdens and have the man of the house back home again carrying on as he was, with all the delights of an orderly and a beautiful home.

With all good wishes, I am

Sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education,
Varsity Basketball Coach.
