Dear Doctor Allen:

Even though "Reboard" shared top honors with the Thanksgiving day bird it was nonetheless appreciated. For the last three years the fast day hasn't been quite the same - one was at sea, another in Alaska and the first one here in Florida. Without fur coats, pom poms, football crowds and mippy weather it just isn't natural.

Everyone was happy to hear of Eleanor's marriage. Some of us perhaps feel just a little envious of the fortunate groom for she is such a fine girl.

Kansas' basketball schedule certainly looks queer this season - was changed so many things. Recently I received a letter from one of the fellows on the hill who said:
