

March 12, 1943.

Mr. Dillon Graham,
Sports Editor,
AP Features,
50 Rockefeller Plaza,
New York City, N.Y.

Dear Dillon:

I am sorry that I shorted out on you last Saturday but I felt my responsibility so keenly that I thought I should write to you in longhand. However, when I got to picking those boys I picked them only for the past two years rather than to go back the past ten or twenty.

Here is my best pick from 1920 to 1943. I am going to pick four forwards, two centers and four guards.

Forwards: Charles Hyatt, Pittsburgh
Angelo "Hank" Luisetti, Stanford
Senesky, St. Joseph's
Andy Phillips, Illinois

Centers: Charles Black, 1943, Kansas
Charles Murphy, Purdue

Guards: George Glamack, North Carolina
Paul Endacott, Kansas
Johnny Wooden, Purdue
Marvin Huffman, Indiana

Honorable Mention

Forwards: Charles Kearney, 1928, Illinois
Johnny Moir, 1936, Notre Dame
Howard Cann, 1920, New York U.
Ralph Vaughn, 1940, So. Calif.

Centers: Victor Holt, 1928, Oklahoma
Forrest Sale, 1933, Kentucky

Guards: Charles Black, 1924, Kansas
Fred Pralle, 1937, Kansas
Ray Evans, 1943, Kansas
William Hapac, 1940, Illinois