

December 29, 1941.

Mr. John H. Glenn,
Beardstown, Illinois.

Dear John:

We are sending you a little memento of the trip that our basketball team made last winter. I thought you might enjoy browsing through it and reading about the boys' impressions and reactions.

By the way, John Buescher was supposed to be back the 27th and at the present writing he hasn't shown up yet. But I imagine that he will be here soon. When he heard them play "Anchors Aweigh" he said, "That's my alma mater" - he was going to take his physical examination.

With best wishes for your health, prosperity and happiness in the New Year, I am

Very sincerely yours,
