Mr. Dan Bolen,
Spradley-Bolen Agency,
Salina, Kansas.

Dear Dan:

By golly, fellow, you are a corker! Most fellows call up and ask if you can come and when you can't they are darned glad of it. But you were so darned glad that you paid me $15.00 for it! You must have known what was coming.

Dan, I certainly appreciate your swell attitude. You are a regular guy and I would get up in the night for you any time you call.

Congratulations on your fine financial campaign. You certainly must have put the old spizzerinktum into the drive.

Please remember me most kindly to Mrs. Bolen and the rest of the family, and my good friends in Salina. I do appreciate your exceptional remembrance.

Sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education,
Varsity Basketball Coach.
