

113 Sylvia Street
Arlington, Mass.

December 29, 1940

Sheryl

Dear Dr. Allen,

"Friendly thoughts are like flowers. They cost little and may mean much." Upon this message I take wing and bring you a message of friendship.

Saturday night a friend of yours known to you as Harry called on me and only a thought bred friend