ALL STAR FOOTBALL GAME

Grant Field, Atlanta, Friday Night, August 22

RAYMOND "BEAR" WOLF
University of North Carolina
Coach of South Georgia All-Stars

Coach Wolf has one of the best coaching records in the nation. In his five years at North Carolina his teams have won 35 games, lost 10, and tied 3. He is an enthusiastic exponent of offensive football and the aerial game he played and coached at Texas Christian University. He will coach the South Georgia All-Stars and will use his double-wing and short punt formation.

Before coming to North Carolina, Wolf served as Athletic Director and line coach at Texas Christian University.

DATE:

August 18-22. The players will report Friday, August 15, but the work for the coaches will not begin until Monday, August 18.

PLACE:

CLIMAX:

All-Star Football Game Friday Night, August 22. Twenty-two North Georgia All-Stars, coached by Rex Enright and using the Notre Dame system, will meet twenty-two South Georgia All-Stars, coached by "Bear" Wolf. The Southern squad will use the Double-wing offense.

REX ENRIGHT
University of South Carolina
Coach of North Georgia All-Stars

Rex Enright will coach the North Georgia All-Stars and will use the Notre Dame offense. Rex should know something of the Notre Dame system, having played under the careful tutelage of the great Rockne. "His terrific line plunging all season was largely responsible for Notre Dame's victories," Rockne commented when he named Enright on his All-Western team in 1925. He was assistant at North Carolina for four years, and at Georgia for seven, before accepting the position of Head Coach and Athletic Director at South Carolina.

(Entire Georgia coaching staff will assist throughout the Clinic)
