

than at any time in the past several years. And he will have enough veterans - capable ones - to work with him and carry him along occasionally when he might have a bad night.

Just as soon as I get word from Professor Russell I will give Max the "go" signal. In fact, I think it might be a good idea for Max to send his $16.00 to the Correspondence Study Bureau, Fraser Hall, University of Kansas, and ask that the assignments in Elementary Economics be mailed to him. I am sure that this five-hour course will be approved, and after he gets that out of the way he can get started on the Foods and Nutrition course.

With all good wishes, I am

Very sincerely yours,
