

Thursday

Dear Dr. Allen:

I intended to write to you several days ago, but I didn't get around to it.

After summer school was out at Greeley August 11th, we drove out to California to see the fair and some relatives. We didn't get back to Hodge until Sept 1st. I had written to Burnett and Schwentfeger from Greeley, but ~~they~~ didn't get a reply to my letters. I didn't know that Burnett was going to school at Mississippi U. until I read about his leaving in the local paper. I suppose Dale Burnett got him fixed up with a job at Mississippi U., since he is a good friend of the coach down there. I thought sure that he would go to K.U. He seemed so sold on the school and the possibility of getting to work under you. Evidently the ties of brotherhood spoke too loudly for Loren to go to K.U.

Then I got the second big surprise when after not seeing Schwentfeger around town, I inquired at the Jr. College office if they knew where I could find him and they told me he had gone to Stillwater, to Okla A.M. to school. I could hardly believe my ears. He had been gone a month. I found out later that Coach Iba called him long distances and
