

Dear Dad.

A tragedy happened in our family. On the evening of Nov. 8 my mother was struck by an auto and died instantly. She and Dad were out walking, a walk they took every night. The fellow that hit her said he was blinded by the lights of another car and didn't see them. I guess Dad. Those things happen and there's nothing you can do. You didn't know my mother but I thought you ought to know how things are with me.

Wade.
