Dear Phog:

Thanks for your letter of last week.

Gwinn Henry wrote me Saturday, and I have instructions on how he wants the advertising handled. His was a very nice letter. You surely spread the oil for me in a great way. I appreciate that a lot Phog.

Sometimes I wonder if those who criticize you, really know you. But perhaps you proceed on the same theory that I do. I try to make somebody mad with each issue of my newspaper. People just love to have something or somebody to complain about, don't they.

Thanks a lot, Phog, and perhaps when Mrs Garvin and I drive down to the Aggie or the Missouri game we'll have a chance to say hello.

Regards to Mrs Allen.

Cordially
