

August 12, 1938.

Mr. Wade Green,
Stewart, Nevada.

Dear Wade:

Thank you for your good letter regarding Gordon Clucas, et al. We got him straightened up without getting hurt too badly. It was not necessary to use your letter, and I have destroyed the same so that there is no record against any one.

Dees has gone down to take his job at Stillwater. The reason I wrote you about Elwyn was that I felt you should know how he felt about the matter. You and he were extremely good friends, and I have always thought that when Elwyn felt queerly about a thing it should be straightened up if possible.

You know, Greeny, it is a bad thing to borrow money from anybody, especially when you cannot pay it back for a long time. If I were you I would write Elwyn a nice letter, because that Dutchman is one hundred per cent, and I want him to be your friend. That was my motive in writing you, and nothing else. You have been a swell fellow, Greeny, and you and Elwyn are both the same kind. It would be a shame if both of you didn't continue to pull for each other, because in about twenty years each of you will get a great kick out of seeing the other.

You can always count on my boosting for you, Greeny, and if at any time I can be of help to you please feel free to call upon me.

With all good wishes, I am

Very sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education,
Varsity Basketball Coach.
