Dear Phog:

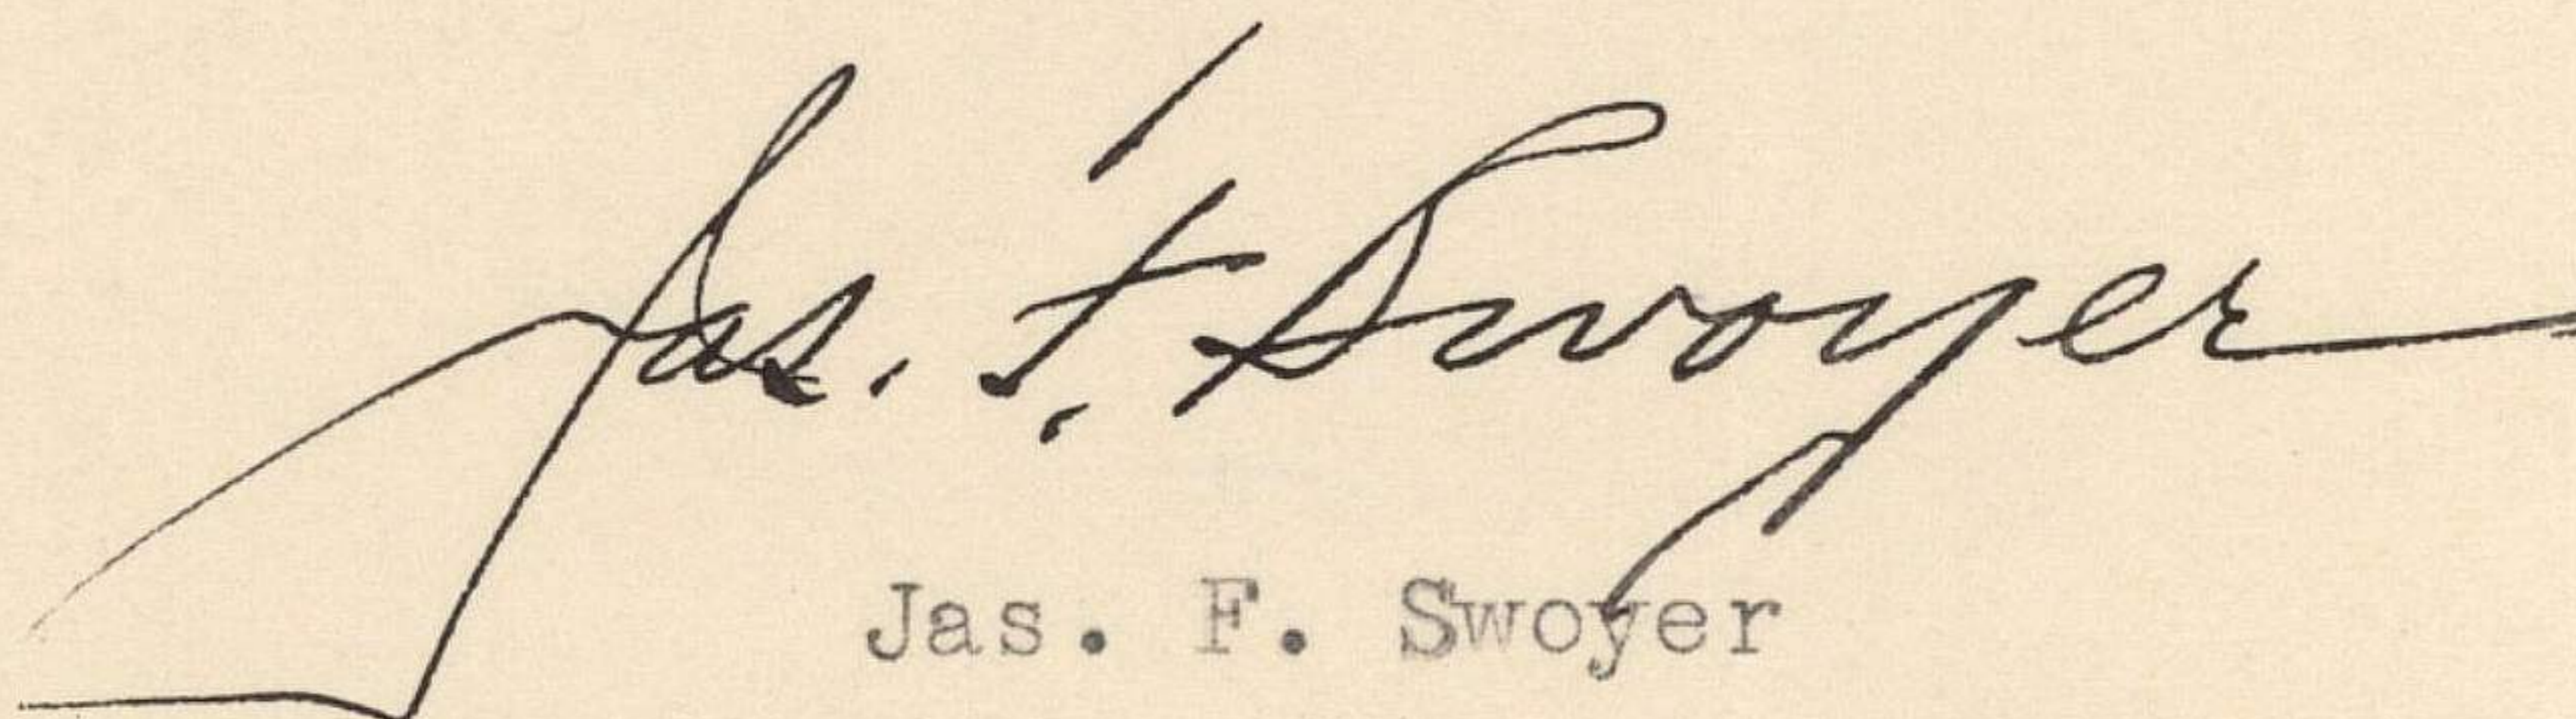

I have your letter of January 4 concerning Becker's bill for a Recreation Commission.

I shall be glad to discuss the bill with you as soon as it is introduced and will gladly look after it for Richard if and when it reaches the Senate.

Richard's daughter has been very ill, and he has not yet been in attendance this Session.

Let me know a short while before just when you would like to go over the bill with me, and I will budget
my time accordingly.

Sincerely yours,

Jas. F. Swoyer
