

January 5, 1939.

Mr. J. N. B. Singh,
Yuvraj, Sakti State,
P/O Sakti, B.N.R.,
India.

Dear Mr. Singh:

I received your letter of December 5th on the day before New Year's, and mailed the book, "Better Basketball", to you immediately. The postoffice was closed, but I was able to get the book in the mail and it went off to New York at once.

I did not send the book via air mail because the postage on such a piece of mail as this would have been prohibitive, running up into the dollars. I trust, however, that you will receive it in a very short time. The postage was 39¢, and if you will send this to me in the stamps of your country I would be very glad to have them for my stamp collection.

I trust that you will enjoy "Better Basketball". I would like to hear from you from time to time, telling me how you get along, what you think of the book, and if there are things that are not clear to you I shall be very glad to explain them. There are numerous diagrams and photographs in the book, and in the back of the book I have written a number of yarns, entitled "Tales of Yesteryears", which I believe you will find very interesting.

I am enclosing a clipping from our local daily newspaper which I thought you might like to see.

Trusting that you will enjoy the book, and with best wishes to you, I am

Very sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education,
Varsity Basketball Coach.

FCA:AH