advised us to buy a copy of 'Better Basket Ball'. I am also thankful to you for sending some material which describes the new book quite fully. I have made up my mind to go in for 'Better Basket Ball' and am sending you herewith a cheque for $ 4.00 on an American Bank drawn in your favour.

Please autograph it and write what you think suitable for a lover of basket-ball in India.

now proud I shall be to possess a book which consists an autograph and advice by the author himself. I hope you will not mind the trouble in sending the book at your
