Dr. Anne Schley Duggan,
Texas College for Women,
Denton, Texas.

Dear Dr. Duggan:

The "Phog" has cleared sufficiently for me to recall our past pleasant memories of having you and your fine squad here on our University of Kansas campus. We are sending you a little memento which we trust will recall the reciprocal pleasures of your visit.

Wishing you and yours continued success, and a very happy Yuletide, I am

Sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education and Recreation,
Varsity Basketball Coach.

Miss Doris Peterson,

Dear Doris:

We want you to know that we enjoyed your stay on our campus very much. This little Jayhawk bird is inviting you to come again at your earliest opportunity. We did appreciate your visit so much.

Wishing you a very happy Yuletide and a prosperous New Year, I am

Sincerely yours,

Miss Kitty Winter,
Texas College for Women,
Denton, Texas.

Dear Miss Winter:

You may not think that this Jayhawk bird has vocal chords sufficiently strong to utter that famous Rock Chalk, Jayhawk yell, but he has. The thing he is best at is inviting you back to Mount Oread and the University campus -- next year, we hope. Your dances and your visit are pleasant memories to us.

Sincerely yours,

FCA:AH

Director of Physical Education and Recreation,
Varsity Basketball Coach.

Miss Mary Katherine Boone,
Texas College for Women,
Denton, Texas.

Dear Miss Boone:

There may be other more famous birds, but there are none more hospitable. This Jayhawk bird that is enclosed with Dr. Duggan's memento of pleasant memories is saying to you that we appreciated your visit and we trust that you will come again.

Sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education and Recreation,
Varsity Basketball Coach.

Miss Virginia Bourguardez,
Texas College for Women,
Denton, Texas.

Dear Miss Bourguardez:

Maybe New Orleans is more hospitable than the roost of the Jayhawk bird on Mount Oread, the University of Kansas campus, - but we don't believe it.

Maybe your forbears (as your name might imply) did not come from New Orleans - you can tell us if we are wrong the next time you come up with Dr. Duggan's splendid dance troupe. Anyhow, we always were poor guessers!

Wishing you a very happy Yuletide and a prosperous New Year, I am

Sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education and Recreation,
Varsity Basketball Coach.

Miss Jeannette Schlottman,
Texas College for Women,
Denton, Texas.

Dear Miss Schlottman:

We still remember how perfectly you relaxed when you executed those difficult and delicate techniques on the dance floor. This Jayhawk bird that I am sending with Dr. Duggan's memento which you will hang on your lapel at times is an omen of good luck which insures mental relaxation at all times.

It was good to have you and your collaborators, cooperators and coordinators on Mount Oread. Were you the one who asked for the Jayhawk yell? Well, if you did, you've got that bird.

With all good luck and best wishes for your continued success, I am

Sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education and Recreation,
Varsity Basketball Coach.

Dear Miss Stehr:

We were greatly impressed by your visit to our campus. We are sending you a little Jayhawk lapel emblem of hospitality which we hope you will wear and sometimes think of that Rock Chalk, Jayhawk bird.

Sincerely yours,

Miss Pearl Brooks,
Texas College for Women,

Dear Miss Brooks:

We were happy to have you accompany Dr. Duggan and her splendid faculty and student group to the University of Kansas campus. We trust that it will be possible for you to come again. I assure you the latchstring is always out for such fine technicians, and we hope that you will have much success in your work when you go out as a teacher.

With best returns for the coming holiday season and a happy New Year, I am

Sincerely yours,

Miss Erna Foster,
Texas College for Women,
Denton, Texas.

Dear Miss Foster:

We are sending you a lapel omen of good luck, the Rock Chalk, Jayhawk bird who is king of all he surveys around this hilltop - Mount Oread.

Again I want to express our pleasure in having Dr. Duggan and her faculty and student group who assisted in the dances so capably. May you have much success in your work in the future.

Sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education and Recreation,
Varsity Basketball Coach.
