Miss Virginia Bourguardez,
Texas College for Women,
Denton, Texas.

Dear Miss Bourguardez:

Maybe New Orleans is more hospitable than the roost of the Jayhawk bird on Mount Oread, the University of Kansas campus, - but we don't believe it.

Maybe your forbears (as your name might imply) did not come from New Orleans - you can tell us if we are wrong the next time you come up with Dr. Duggan's splendid dance troupe. Anyhow, we always were poor guessers!

Wishing you a very happy Yuletide and a prosperous New Year, I am

Sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education and Recreation,
Varsity Basketball Coach.
