
Scope of the Course

Following are the titles of the units covered:

1. The Importance of Knowing First Aid
2. The Body Machine
3. Learn to Deal with Shock
4. First Aid for Wounds
5. The Control of Serious Bleeding
6. The Breath of Life
7. First Aid for Internal Poisoning
8. First-Aid Use of Bandages
9. Injuries from Heat and Cold
10. Injuries That Require Special Attention
11. Fractures, Dislocations, and Sprains
12. Everyday Problems in First-Aid
13. First Aid for the Unconscious
14. Emergency Transportation of the Injured

Authorship

The authors of FIRST-AID TRAINING are Morris Fishbein, M. D., Secretary of the American Medical Association and Editor of the Journal of the American Medical Association and Hygeia, and Leslie W. Irwin, Ph. D., Director of Health, Physical Education, and Safety, The Laboratory Schools, Department of Education, The University of Chicago.

Cost

The price of this workbook is 80c list, from which the usual quantity discount is deductible.

LYONS AND CARNAHAN

Chicago • Dallas • Los Angeles • Atlanta • New York