

love now; we're all getting the usual fever and just plain lazy.
I imagine spring has reached the campus; I can picture how lovely it must be at home and hope that somehow we can manage that last trip....

I imagine Bob has developed a fine bedside manner; isn't he in Kansas City?

Give my regards to Mrs. Allen and to the rest of your family.

Fraternally yours,
R. J.
