

Social Service League

The aim of the League is "To help the poor to help themselves." For thirty years the Social Service League has served the needy of Lawrence. The efficient League Store, 905 Rhode Island street, provides clothing and furniture to border-line cases at a nominal cost, and without cost to those unable to pay. So far this year the League Kitchen has canned over 13,000 quarts of produce for the tables of needy families. In the Sewing Room about 3,000 garments have been made or repaired.

The Salvation Army

The Salvation Army is an army that builds through its three point program of, 1. Better religious education ; 2. Better characters ; 3. Better health. All three of these mean better citizenship. During the past year local people received Christmas baskets, emergency grocery orders, clothes, and furniture ; a large number of transients were assisted with meals and lodging. The Salvation Army nursery was open 271 days during the past year.

Girl Scouts

Girl Scouting is a leisure-time, character building movement for girls from seven to eighteen years of age. There are nearly 300 Girl Scouts in Lawrence, and over 100 adults assisting in the work. The year-round program includes homemaking, arts and crafts, sports and games, health and safety, community service and international friendship.

Boy Scouts of America

Today the paramount need in national defense is the strengthening and invigorating of Democracy in the United States which is the aim of the Boy Scout movement. Lawrence with 11 Troops and 3 Cub Packs, has 330 Scouts and Cubs. More than 100 adults assist.

Joint Christian Council

The war emergency program prevents Hi-Y and Girl Reserves from functioning as formerly. The Joint Christian Council is composed of the cabinets of these organizations. The Council promotes character building and religious activities of the high school. They sponsor religious assemblies for the entire student body with worship programs with religious leaders as speakers.
