Mr. Don Isett, Metropolitan Supply Co., Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

Dear Don:

Thank you very much for your very fine letter of the 6th instant offering to entertain our boys for luncheon on January 29th when we play at Iowa City.

I have written to the Hotel Jefferson in Iowa City asking that they make reservations for our group. We will have ten or eleven players, Trainer Dean Nesmith and myself. We will arrive at 9:15 a.m. on the Rocket.

Regarding our diet, we live on simple food such as small steak, some head lettuce or celery, either a fruit cocktail or sump - just the ordinary run of things, and ice cream for dessert. Any vegetables or side dishes are taken in stride. We generally ask for broiled steak when we can get it. Most any noon day luncheon with a small steak is entirely satisfactory, and it certainly is not necessary to order a special meal because the hotels always run the price up on that sert of a proposition.

It is mighty kind of you to ask us, and I am sure that the boys will greatly appreciate having a short visit with you.

With kindest regards and best wishes, I am

Sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education and Recreation, Varsity Basketball and Baseball Coach.
