Director of Basketball,
Madison Square Garden,
9 Rockefeller Plaza,
New York City, N.Y.

Dear Ned:

We are leaving this afternoon for Columbia, Missouri, where we will know whether we win or just place second. We lost three of our first four games at the start of the season in a ten-game conference schedule. Since that time we have lost one, and our record now stands six and three.

My ace basketball player, Ralph Miller, had a very severe football injury to his knee and it has been slow in mending, so that he is only about 60% efficient at present, but we have been making a pretty good showing since his convalescence.

The Big Six Conference has a ruling against playing on floors other than home floors. Of course, Oklahoma played football in Miami, but you know that was football. The Oklahoma Aggies are in the Missouri Valley Conference. So I don't know what to tell you. The Conference is loosening up some in their attitude as I see they have let Munske of Missouri appear twice in the East. Heretofore that has always been strictly against the rules, so things may loosen up for us as Missouri, Oklahoma and Nebraska are all desiring to have more latitude in basketball playing dates.

So long as Kansas was decidedly out in the van in basketball, and we were asked to make appearances in different places, the Conference was adamant in refusing us the opportunity. I am enclosing a schedule of our season's games to date. I hope to see you at the Rules meeting or the Coaches Association.

Very sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education,

Dear Phog,

At the time of the National Assn. of Basketball Coaches meeting in Chicago last spring we discussed the possibilities of your K.U. basketball team making an eastern trip in the near future.

Does the 1939-40 season seem to you an appropriate time for such a trip? I am working on the schedule for Madison Square Garden and Convention Hall in Philadelphia and if you are contemplating a trip would not like to go so far as to make it impossible to schedule you.

We plan to run two nights in Philadelphia and three nights in the Garden during the week between Christmas and New Year's and also will probably have Oklahoma Aggies here on the weekend of December 16, so there would be plenty of opportunity for you to make the trip without losing any time from classes.

How will your team windup this season? We so seldom get any scores from your section that it is difficult to keep track of matters. If you win the Big Six title will your team compete in the NCAA tournament?

Sincerely yours,

They were killed at 5:45 o'clock yesterday afternoon when the car in which they were returning to their home from a week's fishing trip collided with a truck at the intersection of U. S. highway No. 71 and state highway No. 38, six miles south of Carthage, Mo.

Charles D. Ise and his 24-year-old son had been fishing near Eminence and Hollister, Mo. The son was driving west on highway No. 38, and their car struck the side of a truck being driven north on highway No. 71 by L. N. Brown of Pine Lawn, Mo.

He was a graduate of the old Emporia State Normal school and of the college and law school at the University of Kansas. He played fullback and quarterback on the K. U. football team three years, and was graduated from the law school in 1908. He served the next year as principal and coach of the Coffeyville high school. He had practiced law here thirty years.

President of the school board here twelve years, he was a former member of the Kansas state board of education, and in 1929 served as president of the University of Kansas Alumni association. He was a former exalted ruler of the Elks lodge here, and twice was commander of the Coffeyville post No. 20, American Legion.

Mayor Puts Sanction on College Cage Bills

Giving It

Names Loyola, De Paul
as Official Hosts of Chicago

Mayor Kelly today designated Loyola and De Paul as Chicago's official basketball hosts to welcome ten of the country's leading college quintets here this Winter to meet the Ramblers and the Blue Demons on doubleheader cards at the 132d Armory, Rockwell and Madison sts.

The first twin bill will be played Monday night, December 19, when Loyola plays the University of North Dakota and De Paul meets the University of Iowa. The mayor announced his approval of the doubleheaders after he met with former Judge John A. Sbarbaro and Arthur Morse, directors of the Chicago Intercollegiate Basketball Association, and athletic officials of the two schools. The mayor said:

"Chicago holds the record for boxing bouts, college and prep football crowds and for other athletic events, and why shouldn't we make Chicago the basketball center of the country? I congratulate the officials of Loyola and De Paul and Judge Sbarbaro for scheduling these games."

The mayor said he would attend the opening twin bill and toss the first ball. After the Loyola-North Dakota and Iowa-De Paul twin bill, the doubleheaders follow:

December 26—Loyola vs. Southern Methodist; De Paul vs. Penn State.

January 2—De Paul vs. Santa Clara; Loyola vs. Michigan State.

January 9—De Paul vs. Duquesne; Loyola vs. Villa Nova.

February 3—De Paul vs. Butler; Loyola vs. C. C. N. Y.

Both Loyola and De Paul expect strong teams. Lenny Sachs, Loyola athletic director and basketball coach, is building his club around Mike Novak, 6-foot-9-inch center, and Wibs Keutz, an all-American guard last year, while Tom Haggerty, De Paul mentor, is planning a veteran five built around Bob Neu, captain and forward, who was chosen for all-American honors last year.

Mayor Kelly tosses up a basketball for Coaches Lenny Sachs of Loyola and Tom Haggerty of DePaul, giving his official approval to the college basketball doubleheaders to be played at the Madison st.

armory this Winter, with the Demons and Ramblers as the home teams. Father Howard Ahern of DePaul, Judge John A. Sbarbaro and Arthur Morse (left to right) look on.

Dear Phog:

Will you please ask the boys to save us five tickets for the Missouri-Kansas game tomorrow night. We will be in Lawrence before 7 o'clock and will pick them up at the ticket window. We really prefer the temporary seats on the floor in front of the regular seats, if such are available. We like our basket ball close.

You have certainly had your run of tough luck this year, but we believe that Wednesday night will turn the tide for you. I had a letter from Al and he said he saw you boys in action against Oklahoma the other night, and he said they just simply couldn't miss, and I guess that was the case both there and up at Lincoln last Saturday night. Maybe one of these nights Kansas will have one of those nights. At least we are still pulling for you and will be in Lawrence to help you out Wednesday night.

Yours truly,

Although I only left you yesterday, I failed to extend my hand of congratulation for your winning the Missouri Valley championship. I formally do this now, and I trust that we, cooperating together for basketball, may develop that wonderful play-off tournament to determine the winner of the Fifth District, and that winner to travel on to the Regional and eventually to the National.

I sincerely trust that all of us here in the Fifth District will cooperate and make basketball winter's king sport carnival in this area.

Mr. Ned Irish,

Dear Ned:

Thanks for your good letter of March 6th.

When I have an opportunity to talk with you some of our difficulties might be ironed out. If we could have formal letters from the schools that we expected to play asking for the game, and if the agreement and contract could be done in this way, I believe it would obviate difficulties that we have found insurmountable heretofore.

The fact of the matter is that Kansas has won the Big Six championship eight out of eleven years, and I find that we get very little consideration when we ask for a concession. Perhaps with Missouri and Oklahoma tied for the championship this year and our situation one game below these two teams, it might be that some of the other fellows may be interested in promoting the sport.

I imagine that you will be at the coaches meeting and we can talk this thing over. As I told you before, our administration will not approve games with schools that are not members of the North Central Association of Schools and Colleges. Doubtless you will recall that I mentioned this once before.

I am glad that you had a good visit with Dr. "Ug" Sermon. In my opinion he was one of the greatest college players that ever wore a cleated or a spiked shoe, and he was no slouch at this indoor game called basketball.

Dr. Forrest C. Allen

Dear Doc,

I have just returned from the Southern Conference tourney where I had a very pleasant time with one of your former pupils, Dr. Sermon.

Got your note in reference to the Conference ruling and wish to point out a factor that seems to be generally misunderstood throughout the country.

Madison Square Garden is the HOME court of New York City institutions and is specifically designated as such by all New York institutions when they play on that court. The only institution which does not do this is Columbia. The seven other local colleges and universities use the Garden court and have the same control over the conduct of games there as in their own gyms, which as you know are inadequate for intercollegiate contests of any sort but the most minor games.

All contests between New York schools and schools in conferences having a rule such as the Western Conference are arranged between the institutions and contracts are with such institutions, not with an individual or the Madison Square Garden Corporation.

My status is simply one in the nature of a booking agent in allotting dates to the local schools and suggesting opponents who might be receptive to games on dates which they have use of the Garden floor. The two games are played each night in the nature of insurance against the possibility that one of the games might not be adequate to attract sufficient interest to warrant the seating capacity of the Garden.

Trust that this clears up your doubts regarding the ruling of the Conference on home floors.

Sincerely yours,

Director of Basketball
Madison Square Garden.
