FUNERAL OF FATHER AND SON
TO BE IN COFFEYVILLE.

A Motor Car Wreck Near Carthage, Mo., Was Fatal to President of School Board and the Younger Man.

(By The Star's Own Service.)

COFFEYVILLE, KAS., Aug. 14.—Funeral services for Charles D. Ise, president of the Coffeyville Board of Education, and his son, Thomas Ise, Republican candidate for state representative in the twenty-sixth district, will be held at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning at their home in Coffeyville. They were killed at 5:45 o'clock yesterday afternoon when the car in which they were returning to their home from a week's fishing trip collided with a truck at the intersection of U. S. highway No. 71 and state highway No. 38, six miles south of Carthage, Mo.

Charles D. Ise and his 24-year-old son had been fishing near Eminence and Hollister, Mo. The son was driving west on highway No. 38, and their car struck the side of a truck being driven north on highway No. 71 by L. N. Brown of Pine Lawn, Mo.

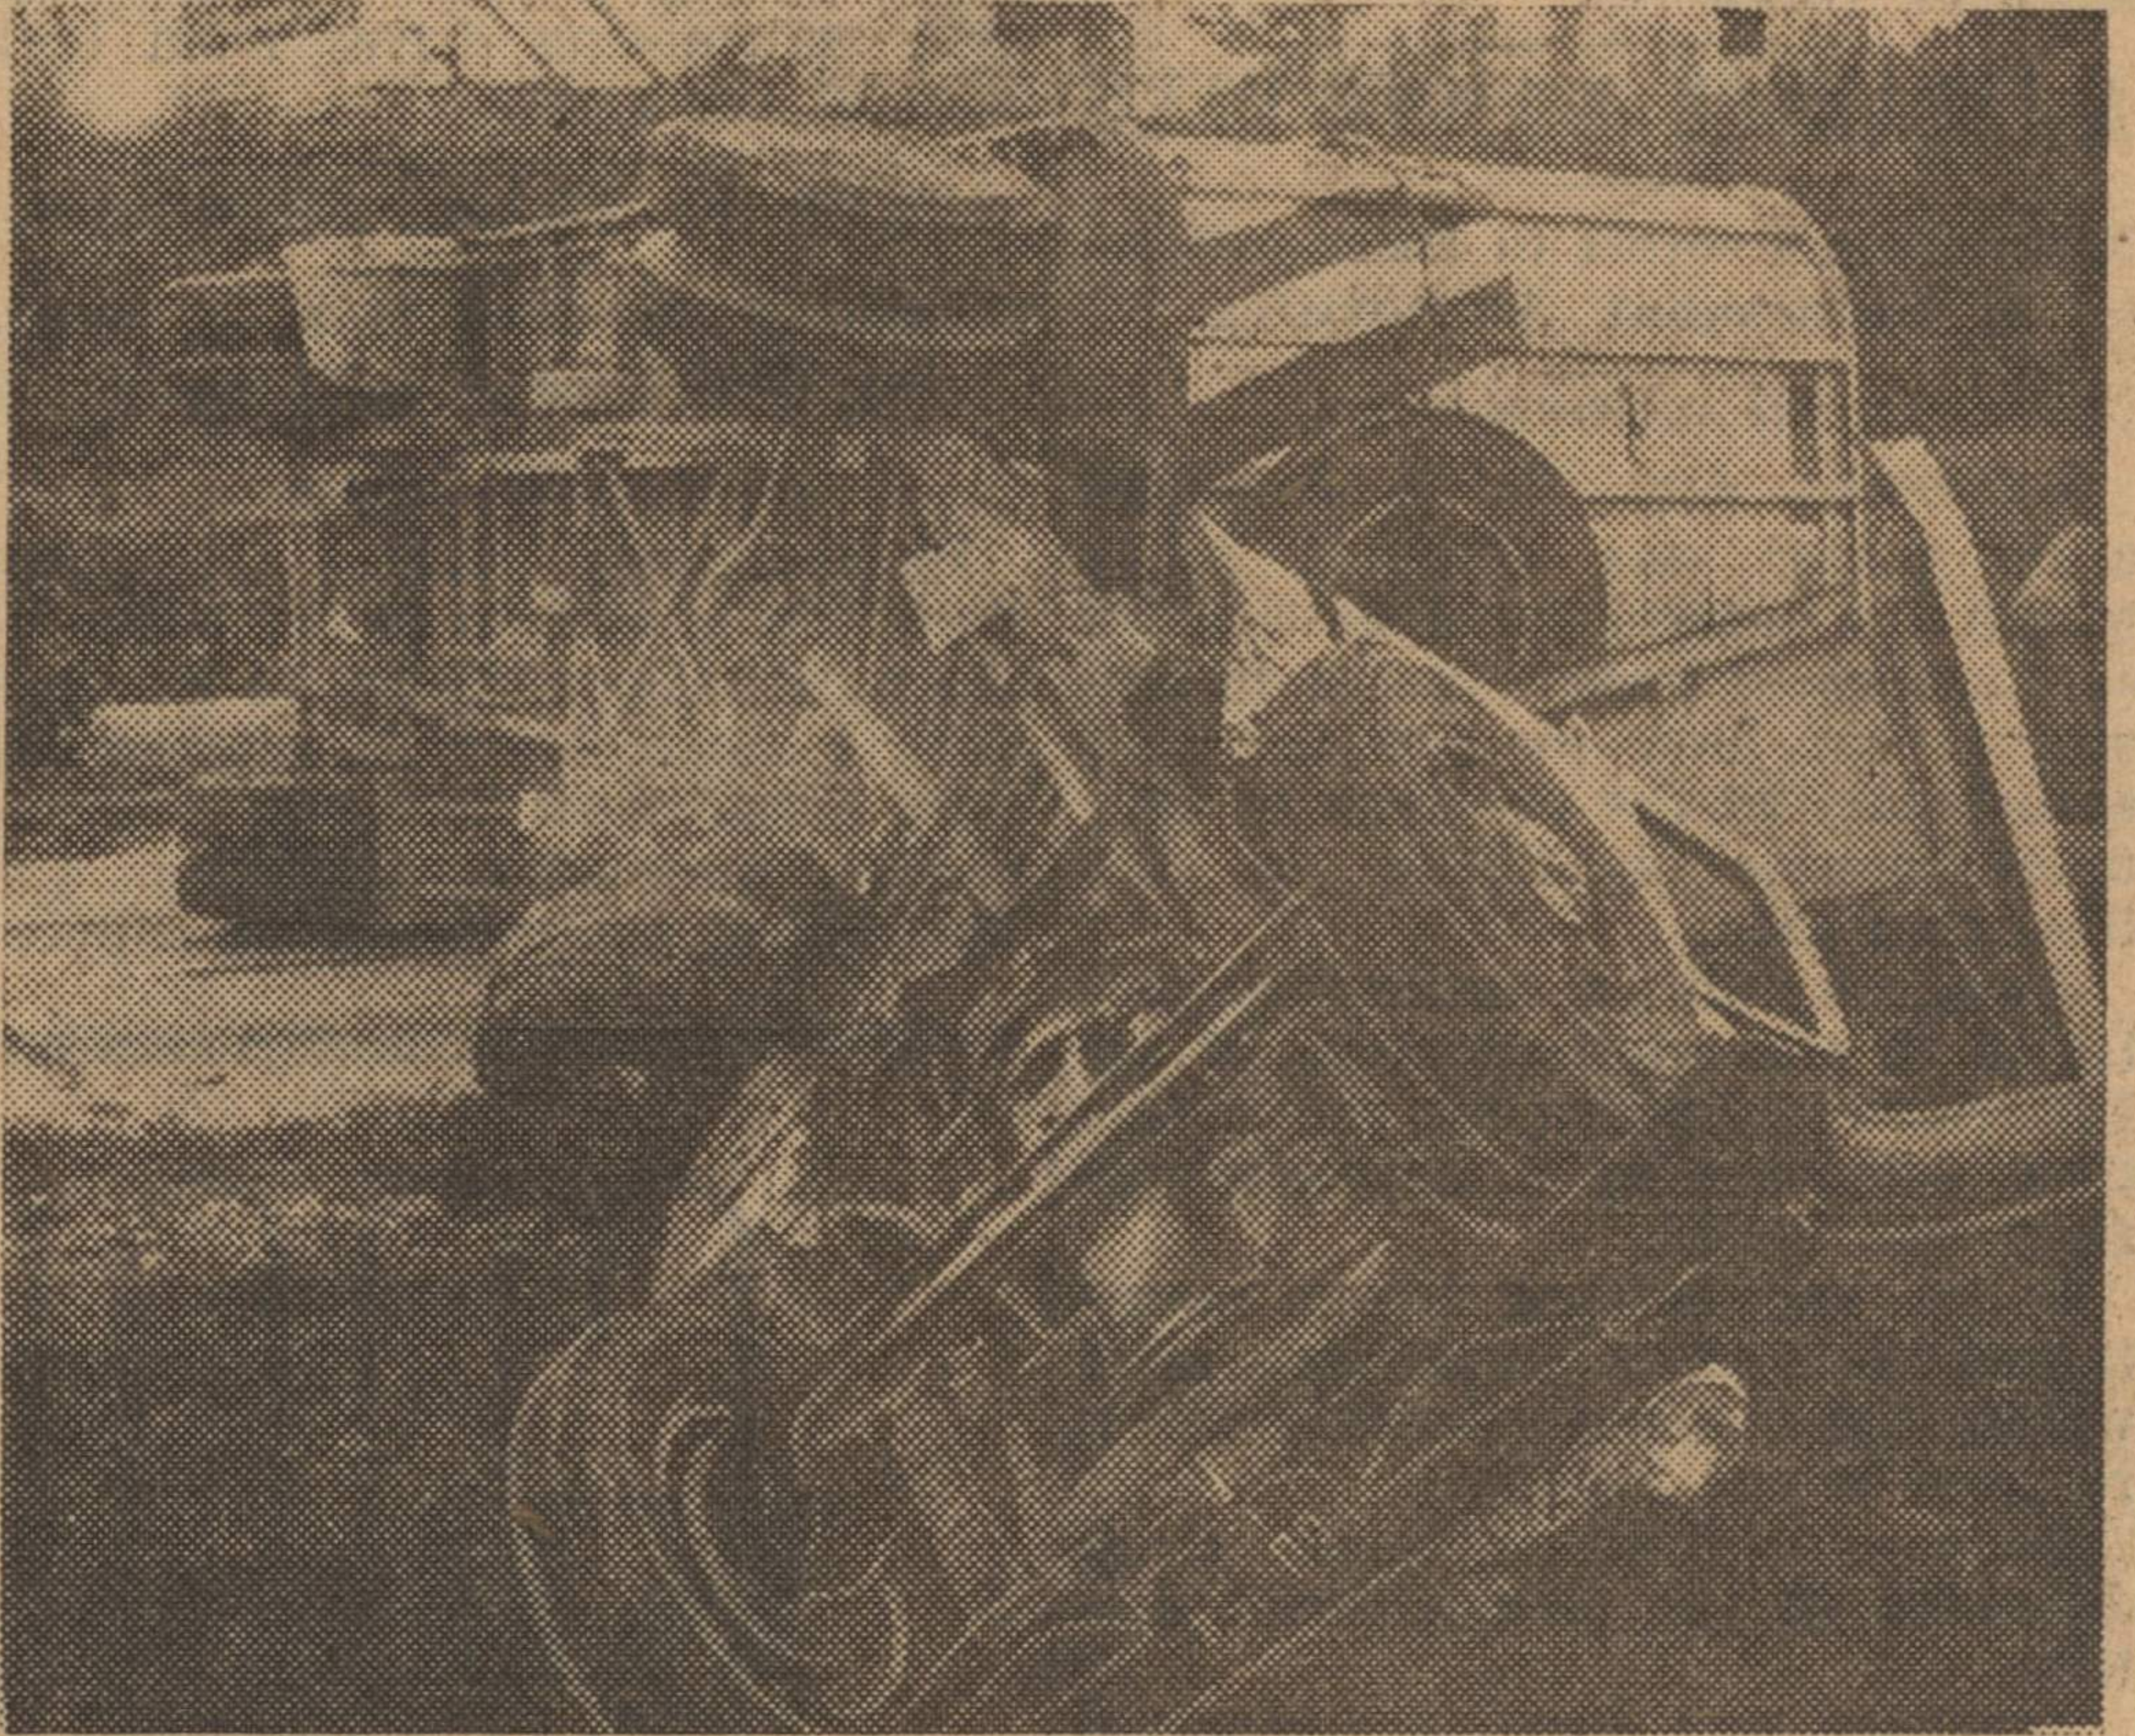

A BROTHER OF PROFESSOR.

Charles D. Ise was a brother of John Ise, professor of economics at the University of Kansas. He was a graduate of the old Emporia State Normal school and of the college and law school at the University of Kansas. He played fullback and quarterback on the K. U. football team three years, and was graduated from the law school in 1908. He served the next year as principal and coach of the Coffeyville high school. He had practiced law here thirty years.

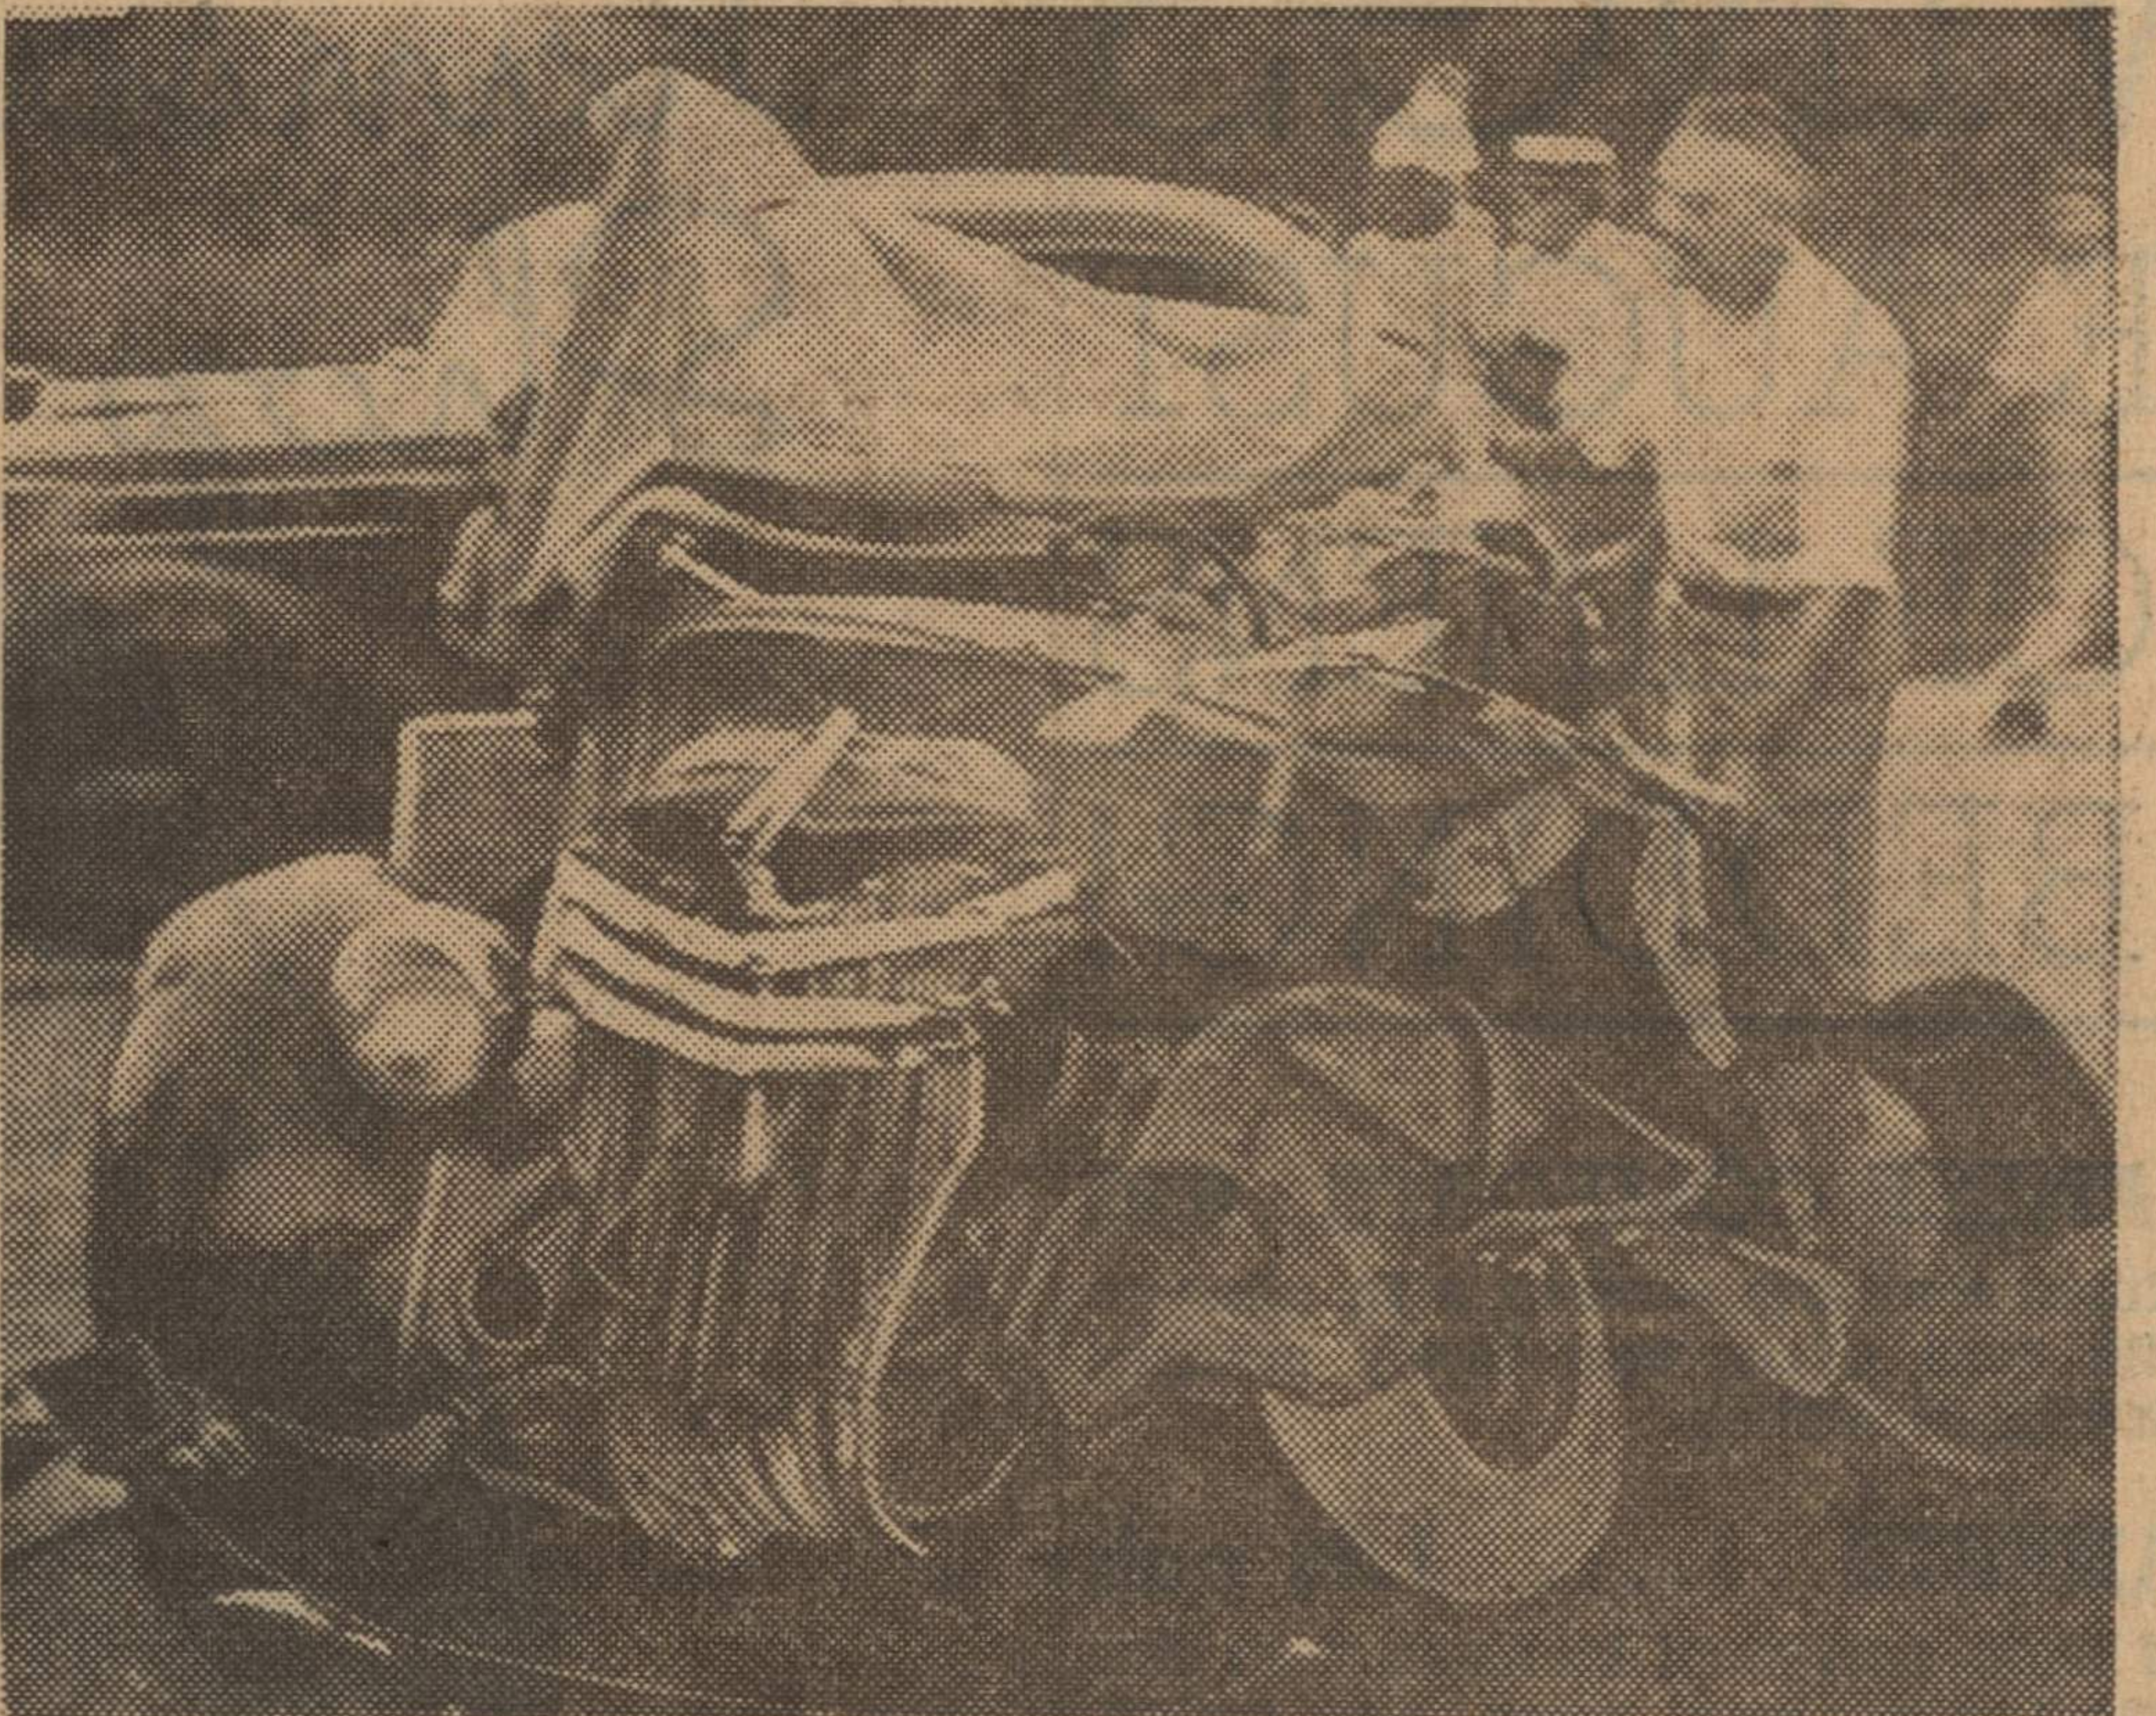

President of the school board here twelve years, he was a former member of the Kansas state board of education, and in 1929 served as president of the University of Kansas Alumni association. He was a former exalted ruler of the Elks lodge here, and twice was commander of the Coffeyville post No. 20, American Legion.

Thomas Ise was graduated last June from the law school at the Uni-

AFTER A WRECK IN WHICH FATHER AND SON WERE KILLED.

THEY STRUCK THIS TRUCK—Charles D. Ise, president of the board of education in Coffeyville, Kas., was riding west on Missouri state highway No. 36 with his son, Thomas Ise, when their motor car late Saturday struck the side of this truck on U. S. highway No. 71, six miles south of Carthage.

THEY WERE DRIVING THIS CAR—The truck was overturned, the car was demolished, and Charles D. Ise and Thomas Ise were killed. Thomas Ise was Republican candidate for state representative from the twenty-sixth district in Kansas. The truck driver, L. N. Brown of Pine Lawn, Mo., escaped severe injury.
