Dear Phog:

Will you please ask the boys to save us five tickets for the Missouri-Kansas game tomorrow night. We will be in Lawrence before 7 o'clock and will pick them up at the ticket window. We really prefer the temporary seats on the floor in front of the regular seats, if such are available. We like our basket ball close.

You have certainly had your run of tough luck this year, but we believe that Wednesday night will turn the tide for you. I had a letter from Al and he said he saw you boys in action against Oklahoma the other night, and he said they just simply couldn't miss, and I guess that was the case both there and up at Lincoln last Saturday night. Maybe one of these nights Kansas will have one of those nights. At least we are still pulling for you and will be in Lawrence to help you out Wednesday night.

Yours truly,

J.W. Irwin
