Dear Dean Lawson,

Charles Moffett was a bed patient in the hospital on the following dates:

October 6, 1944 to October 8, 1944 - head injury sustained in football.

November 26, 1944 to November 30, 1944 - infected abrasion of wrist sustained in football.

December 7, 1944 - December 11, 1944 - furuncle on chin.

January 8, 1945 to January 12, 1945 - stayed at hospital nights for treatment of skin infection. Out during the day.

January 22, 1945 admitted for treatment of boil on chin.

Very truly yours,

Ralph I. Canuteson, M.D.
