

Havent seen any Jayhawkers down this way. but still looking as if I see them in all probability, if they go thru.

Received some pictures the other day of the wife and son and they both looked awfully good to me.
Mike is growing like a weed and if I dont hurry and get home he will be a grown boy. He is cutting his teeth now and getting cross.

Im waiting for that day when I can change my uniform for a coat suit and go home. a felt hat would surely feel good on my head.

well see I must close and get ready to go to bed for
