Mr. Phog Allen,

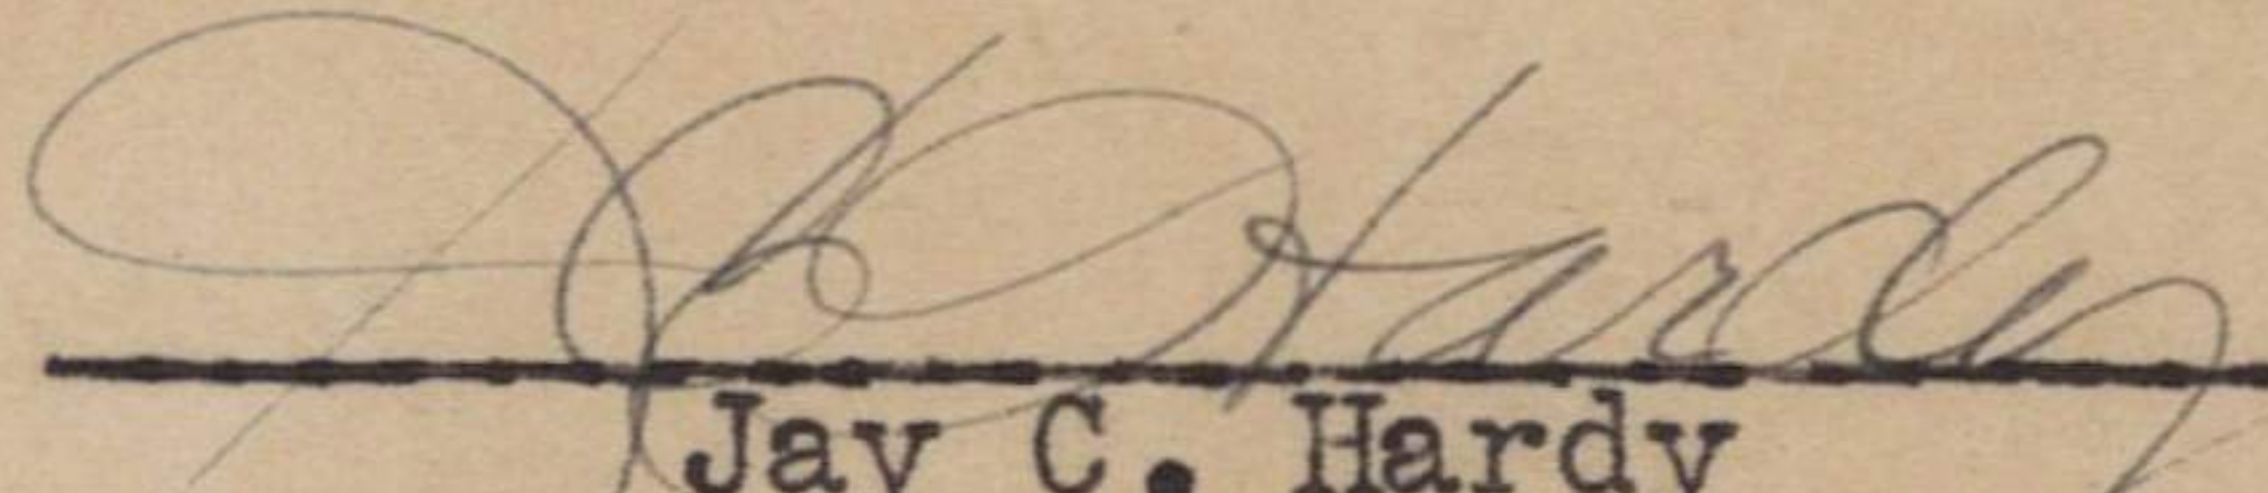

Dear Sir,

At a recent gathering of a group of enthusiastic followers of basketball, the often discussed "All-time - All - American" team was again introduced.

We have decided to abide by a selection of four gentlemen, namely, yourself, Mr. Grantland Rice, Mr. John Kiernan, and Mr. Ernest Quigley. We believe these men to be the most capable of voicing an opinion in this matter.

The above information will be sincerely appreciated by us.

Very truly yours,

Jay C. Hardy

P.S. Please select six men.
