HOLIDAY COACHING SCHOOL

AND

BASKETBALL CLINIC

Hutchinson, Kansas, December 27, 1944

FOR BASKETBALL OFFICIALS AND COACHES

9:30 A M to 10:30 P M

Classes, demonstrations, panel discussions, basketball games, dinner.

The biggest and most valuable one-day program ever attempted in Kansas.

"FROSTY" COX

HEAD COACH OF BASKETBALL, UNIVERSITY OF COLORADO

"Frosty" is well known to Kansas basketball coaches and officials as a great player and a great coach. He will be with us to head the staff of instructors.

THERE WILL BE OTHER HEADLINERS

Negotiations are under way to secure other leaders in the field of coaching and officiating. A discussion and demonstration of the mechanics of basketball officiating will be held. This will be a fine opportunity for officials from all sections of the state to get together and work together.

Reaves Peters, Commissioner of Officials for the Big Six Conference, and a leading basketball coach of this area will participate in the panel discussions and demonstrations, along with leading officials of the state.

THREE BASKETBALL GAMES

At night, beginning at 7 o'clock there will be three basketball games. These will be open to the public but all registered officials and coaches will have reserved, ringside seats. These games will be played between leading high school teams of the state representing each of the three divisions, AA, A and B. Watch the papers for the final selection of teams.

These games will serve as clinic games for the officials. There will be 8 officials in each game, a different pair officiating each game quarter. 24 officials in all. Officials who will volunteer to work in these games should notify the Commissioner at once, 409 NATIONAL RESERVE BUILDING, TOPEKA, KANSAS

A FREE DINNER will be served at 5 o'clock to those who are registered for the clinic. Since the capacity of the dining room is limited to approximately 250, those whose registrations are received first will be the lucky ones.

REGISTRATION FEE $1.50

All officials and coaches registering for the school will be charged $1.50. This will entitle the registrant to attend and participate in all sessions of the clinic, will give him a free ticket to the dinner, and a ringside seat to the basketball games in the evening.

A $1.00 registration will entitle the registrant to everything except the dinner. In case there are too many to be accommodated at the dinner those who are left out will be charged only $1.00. In order to be sure that you get in on everything, send in your registration fee now. Registration cards will be issued in the order in which they are received.
