

is dehuve. of course it has to be because an old Jayhawker prepares it.

I was surprised and pleased to find Gordon Schaeffer aboard as Steward. He and I pledged Kappa Sigma together and were there till week + initiated together.
Gordon is "Bub" Schaeffer's ^{cousin} from Russell. He knows Mitt and a lot of the boys.

Heard Mitt joined the Navy.
He picked the right branch.
Where is he located now? Does he complain of sea sickness yet?
I haven't been sick yet so I guess give a cast iron gut. We have seen some hellish storms a couple of times. So scared the ship was going to break apart to be sea sick.

Saw Bob Haggert when I was home + we tried to get a ship together but things didn't work out. Would certainly have liked to ship out with Bob.

Do you know anything about the rehabilitation program? This armed guard is going to fold up
