

THE LAWRENCE PAPER COMPANY • PAPER MILL AND FACTORY • LAWRENCE, KANSAS • CORRUGATED FIBREBOARD • JAYHAWK BOXES •

September 7, 1943

Doctor Forrest C. Allen
University of Kansas
Lawrence, Kansas

Dear Doctor Allen:

I don't like the phoney, secret rebait type of wager this Scot with an Irish handle injects into the negotiations. "Unconditional surrender" is the vogue now. Printing press, money and bonds have little interest.

If he will put up his elastic girdle or shoes, we'll know where he stands.

We played with a new dealer once who proposed a phoney exchange of $25.00 each lost hole to excite and fool the caddies. The caddies got excited but later concluded we could spare the new balls we had in our bags.

I broke 50 once on our nine.

Hard liquor, dropping sly balls, killing snakes and such Scotch habits, including buying opponents caddy, etc., are under F.B.I. here.

(Private to F.C.A.: Maybe we better send a two gun scout to Abilene and get the low down on this ringer. A fellow from this town has pulled some slicker stuff on his honorable opponents in Africa.).

Yours Eti-co-quettishly

IH

Irving Hill

P.S. The chancellor can't be blamed for having a father, but you must be firm that the chancellor or regents have no jurisdiction.

IH:r