Mr. Mike H. Malott
Citizens Bank
Abilene, Kansas

Dear Mike:

Bring your crooked sticks over again. Never played with a sand rat who had less trouble with grass greens, or was a better sport about the undulations.

Heretofore your statement shows you have made banking first and golf second business. That may have been all right the past 58 years, but would be a helluva mistake the next 58.

Phog starts by lantern and quits the same way, but we frequently take time out on the Army, Navy, O.P.A. and W.P.B. to shoot 9 holes at 4 p.m. on Monday. I get damned tired of looking at his fine physique and thinking of mine -- so come again. Another old codger along is a relief and pleasure.

If you think Eisenhower would like Eleanor for reinforcement, perhaps McArthur would not object and Capper could arrange. She does not seem to want to serve in the underground.

Respectfully,

Irving Hill
