Mr. Irving Hill,
Lawrence Paper Company,
Lawrence, Kansas.

Dear Mr. Hill:

I thought I was a good alibi boy, but you just help me out at every turn. I really didn't know how to alibi for the rotten basketball team that I had until you wrote the letter to Bill Winey. Now I can just say that I had too many extracurricular duties! Thanks for giving me an idea.

I hope that I can get my work straightened up so that we can have that game of golf. I am just itching for an opportunity to get out on the course. But the Red Cross and some of these other jobs are still holding me pretty close. However, things are lightening up and when the sun shines with its inviting rays you are apt to get a call.

Sincerely yours,

FCA:AH
