

Doctor, if you know of any of the K.V. men going overseas westward, please let me know because I'm stationed at the last processing station for all troops going westward. I surely would like to have the opportunity to meet and see again any of K.V.'s men.

Please give my best regards to Mr. Shank and best wishes always to you and your boys.

Very sincerely yours,
Dub Hartley