

is about the only boy I remember so I can see that you must have a team of freshmen. I think they have done darn well to win the games they have.
I'll bet next year will be an entirely different story if you have these boys back.

I sure do scan the faces of every new class that comes here, hoping to find another Kansas man.
I guess Charley Black is now flying A.T.s. I know he will make the grade
in fine style.
