

January 22, 1943.

Mr. Lacy Haynes,
Kansas City Star Bureau,
Kansas City, Kansas.

Dear Lacy:

It was fine to see you, if only for a few moments. I will make it a point to have a chance to talk with you at greater length than we did the other night. Some time I will run in to Kansas City when you are free enough that we can discuss things with less haste.

I understand that Kansas Day on the 29th will detain you and I do not see how you will be able to make it, but I will be glad if you can be with us on the 30th. We have a tough assignment and we need the old maestro there to fix us up. We certainly hope you can come down to Lawrence to see one of our games, at least, but I know the gasoline problem, and that is a real problem.

I saw Mary Jane in the hall between games but did not get to see the Mrs. My kindest regards to you, old fellow.

Sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education,
Varsity Basketball Coach.
