

as that is just what he needed.
He would be around young men and has always been interested in athletics a great deal until the last two or three years. I believe this sort of a job would do more for him to find himself than any thing I know.

Most every one in Lawrence now, I gather, is looking for the big money at the ordnance works. Dad is no exception but he has few qualifications to cash in on it. The folks haven't written but my sister wrote me from Chicago that he had a job a Packler's. I don't know what kind of a position he has but I never did think much of that company. They have always had a reputation as being cold blooded but I guess he should be glad to get anything. So much for this and more on the new side,