

Season's Greetings

2

We have a basketball team here on the station that plays in a navy league. We don't have much but they made me come out of retirement and play. I'm sort of slow and have lost all my turning but I know what to do and I just can't get the job down. However, I manage to hold my own and can still handle the ball which is something you don't have a lot of down in this territory. I still foul out. Mit probably be interested in that.
