

for everybody concerned. It would revive intercollegiate athletics all over the nation and would not determine the schools that have been successful because "big time" athletics, in the sense of buying football teams and other athletic talent would be out. Don't you see this? If not, please state very frankly your viewpoint and I will endeavor to give you mine.

Sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education,
Varsity Basketball Coach.

PGA:AH
Enc.