Mr. Gwinn Henry,

Lawrence, Kansas.

Dear Gwinn:

Some two weeks ago I was in your office and spoke to you about a small contribution for the Red Cross. We are still mopping up on the unfinished business so we can turn over to this very worthy organization every contribution.

I heard Julia Henry Nessly speak at Rotary Club and she told about the Red Cross furnishing the passengers coming back from Samoa clothing and actual money when they were in need of it. She says, "You can't give too much to the Red Cross", and I know that she has already told you of the fine work done by that organization. However, it is not necessary for me to repeat that because I know that you know this as well as I do.

We have not had one turn-down for the Red Cross this year and I thought it would be better to write you a letter than to hunt you up. You remember you promised us $10.00, and I am sending you a blank check with a self-addressed envelope so that you might mail it to me. A lot of us gave $50.00 this time, so I know that you won't mind sending this on so I can get it in to the proper authorities at the earliest possible date.

Very cordially yours,
