

October 28, 1943.

Mr. Bruce Drake,
Basketball Coach,
University of Oklahoma,
Norman, Oklahoma.

Dear Bruce:

About a week ago Mr. James "Jimmy" Nixon, formerly Municipal Auditorium publicity man and assistant to the manager, called me and told me that he had gone into business for himself as a booking agent. He stated he had an opportunity to get the Andrews sisters, of New York, a fine theatrical attraction, for the Municipal Auditorium on December 18th. That meant, of course, that we would relinquish our date. I told him to give me twenty-four hours to think it over.

After thinking the matter over I decided that perhaps our two games at Lawrence and Norman will be sufficient for this year. With Missouri and Nebraska out of the foursome, it might be construed that Oklahoma is traveling a great distance to put on an exhibition game.

Very sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education,
Varsity Basketball Coach.

FCA:AH