

July 2, 1942.

Mr. Elmer F. Hier,
Hotel Muehlebach,
Kansas City, Mo.

Dear Mr. Hier:

It seems as if we cannot get things straightened out.

While I was sitting at my desk the other day I wrote you a note and sent you a check for $4.08, the same to cover two day rate registrations on the 13th and 20th. On the 13th I met Mr. Roy Roberts, of the Kansas City Star, at the Muehlebach and had a conference with him on a very important mission. He was having a dinner date with the Navy people and not being able to have a long conference with him I wrote him a fourteen-page letter in my room.

I went downstairs about 3 o'clock in the afternoon, checked out, signed the account, and turned in the key to the lady at the desk and remarked that I was then checking out, and I see no excuse why there would be any reason for charging me for the full time. I thought my letter of explanation to you would cover that, but apparently it got by you.

The reason I wrote you personally was to take care of this matter. You told me your help often got you in difficulty because you had to make so many changes, but I see no excuse for this error.

Very sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education,
Varsity Basketball Coach.

FCA:AH