

August 4, 1942.

Mr. Elmer F. Hier,
Manager,
Hotel Muehlebach,
Kansas City, Mo.

Dear Mr. Hier:

I am sending you a check for $3.06 to cover the room for July 26.

It seems as if I still have trouble, and perhaps will unless I see you when I make connections. I had a date with Harry Welsh, the Missouri alumnus, and I wanted an air-cooled room. I told the fellow at the desk, who is your right hand man - the big fellow, kind of bald-headed. I even told him that I rated a special rate, and he looked in the little book, and instead of giving me an air-cooled room he gave me 1101, I believe, on the corner looking into the court, with a fan.

This must have been a $3.50 room and he figured I was entitled to a 50¢ rebate, and he did not give me an air-cooled room. I guess the only way I can have any luck is to call for you when I come in. It seems as if there is always something happening when I try to make the proper connections. But it happened the fan was a good big overhead fan, and the day was not unpleasantly hot. But it was not as comfortable as it might have been.

Sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education,
Varsity Basketball Coach.

FCA:AH
Enc.