POST HEADQUARTERS

FORT SAM HOUSTON, TEXAS
February 28, 1941

Dear Doctor Allen:

I have been going to write this letter ever since a certain incident about a month ago. I picked up a Satevepost and was thumbing thru it, and lo and behold there was THE STORY, I'm not kidding you, I got so excited over seeing it that I could hardly settle down and actually read it. And gosh but it did make me feel good. Cause I want everybody to know about you Doc, and when they do they will think just as much of you as I do.

Most of the material in the story was old stuff to me, if you recall the biographical story I did for the Anniversary Kansan. And so I was doubly interested in the yarn. I have a copy of the Post that I have been saving for you, because I would like for you to autograph a copy of that for me.

Doc I have been in two widely separated parts of the country in the past 5 months, and I want you to know that your popularity and fame in those two sections <sup>un-</sup>was almost believeable. I refer to Ft. Benning, Ga., and Fort Sam Houston, Tex. And when people started talking about basketball, I threw out my chest (and if I do<sub>n</sub>'t quit eating so much it is soon going to be a difficult task) and said, "I know Doctor Forrest C. Allen", and from then on I
