

August 1, 1940.

Mr. Harold Hauser,
Marion, Kansas.

Dear "Dutch":

I came to my desk this morning and got your memo on Joe Uhle, of Pueblo, Colorado, and Henry Antone, of the same address. Pueblo is a pretty good sized place and I was afraid Joe Uhle would not get a letter without a street address.

Here's the slant, Harold. Frosty Cox came in and got Bill Millikan, of Eureka, and took him to Colorado. He put him on the state highway at $150.00 a month. I am convinced that Frosty or some of his friends are registering this boy Millikan from Colorado and not from Kansas, as his residence. You can see what an objection there would be on the part of the taxpayers of Colorado if they knew they were paying a Kansas boy $150.00 a month when there are plenty of Colorado boys desiring and deserving of the job.

What I desired to find out was how the state highway department was handling this Bill Millikan address and where they had him registered. Not knowing Joe Uhle or Henry Antone well enough, I am wondering if you couldn't do this for me. It would be necessary for you as an attorney to find out where William Millikan is working on the Colorado state highway and where he is registered from.

For that reason I choose not to write these boys until I can have word from you. Won't you write me at your earliest convenience and tell me if you will handle this for me? Or, if you cannot handle it, I would like for you to find out someone on the Colorado state highway who could give us the information that we desire.

It was good to see you and have a visit with you.

Sincerely yours,
