

Max said he would like to see me and ask some questions about the University, fraternities, etc, and again for this reason I am certain he will enroll at Lawrence this fall.

If he would join a fraternity and get a job at the house, together with his job on the hill, I am sure he would have no financial troubles.

I will write Max tomorrow and tell him what I can about the University and ^{of} everything else that I think of which will help ~~him~~ to assure him that he will
