Dear Phog,

Your fine letter was followed by the arrival of the autographed book which I shall place in my prize shelf. I certainly appreciate getting it, and I think you can understand my sympathy and admiration about the short story dealing with the boy.

Thanks a lot for all your past favors, and if at any time I can be of service, or you have the time for just a personal chat, it will be a pleasure to be summoned.

With kindest regards, I am

Yours truly,

L.C. Haynes

Dear Shirley:

I acknowledge with pleasure the receipt of your letter of October 4th.

I will be glad to have a conference some time at your convenience. We are not certain as to what definite move will be made.

I am filling out the enclosed Stanford appointment bureau service blank and mailing it to them. I assure you it will be a pleasure for me to do this.

Very cordially yours,

Dr. F. C. Allen
University of Kansas
Lawrence, Kansas

Dear Dr. Allen,

When I was in Lawrence on a recent Saturday, I found you too busy to be disturbed. It doesn't look now as if I can make it to Lawrence again for some time, but this is what I had on my mind.

Rumors have reached me that Mr. Allphin will probably not return to K. U. next year. Is there any basis for the rumor? If it is true, I am wondering if, in any way, I might fit into the picture? My work here in Kansas City has been very pleasant, but I am anxious to get into college work.

In view of this desired change, I have enrolled in Stanford's Appointment bureau, specifying positions of junior college or college level. Will you please fill out the enclosed form and mail it to them?

Thanks.

Shirley Hukle

Department of Physical Education

University of Kansas, Lawrence, Kans.

I have known Shirley Hukle since 1930 when he was a student here at the University of Kansas and part-time assistant instructor in our department. Also, I have followed his work very closely since he has been in the Kansas City, Kansas, public school system.

I have always had the highest regard for him, both as a gentleman and as a teacher of physical education. In the first place, I am confident that he has a very fine influence over the boys with whom he comes in contact. Also, he has been very conscientious and thorough in the work he has done. I certainly would give him a very thorough recommendation for a teacher of physical education. I can see no reason why he would not make an excellent man in a college job. I do not believe he is primarily interested in coaching.

Major J. W. Henderson,
Culver Military Academy,
Culver, Indiana.

Dear Major Henderson:

Mr. E. B. (Burt) DeGroot and his wife are planning to stop by Culver Military Academy on their way back from South Bend on Friday of this week. They desire to look over Culver and I would appreciate it very much if you could detail someone to show them the school and campus.

Mr. DeGroot is a newcomer on our Physical Education faculty this year. He has a master's degree from Stanford. During his collegiate days at Stanford he was intercollegiate pole vault champion.

I would appreciate it if you would have him meet Coach Oliver and your intramural manager there. I would also like him to say hello to Kenneth Adams. If you happen to come across Kenneth a hello for me would be appreciated.

Mr. DeGroot comes from a long line of physical education people. His father founded the South Side Playgrounds in Chicago, the first in the west, I believe. He has a young brother who is javelin champion at the University of Southern California, and an older brother, Dudley, who is director of physical education at San Jose State Teachers College. Dudley has his doctor's degree from Stanford University.

I would greatly appreciate any courtesies to Mr. and Mrs. DeGroot.

Our kindest regards to the Hendersons. We often talk of the large and wonderful family that the Hendersons have. We can hardly realize that some of them are of college age. But just to think that our youngest is a freshman in college this year and Bob, the fifth one, is a junior pre-medic here at the University!

With all good wishes, I am

Very sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education and Recreation,

Dear Lacey:

I am sending you a copy of the letter that I sent to my varsity team members in September, telling them of our desires for the 1939-40 season. I am also enclosing a letter that I have sent to the boys today emphasizing the fact that we insist on them obeying the training rules.

I thought you would be interested in seeing these communications to the basketball squad.

With all good wishes, I am

Dear Mr. Himman:

We are eagerly looking forward to having you and Mrs. Himman with us on Thursday evening for the dinner meeting of the Sasnak Club. The meeting will be an informal affair, and we are anticipating a good attendance by our major students.

The meeting will be held in the new "Kansas" room of the Memorial Union Building, which is being finished just in time for our meeting. Miss Stapleton informs me that you are stopping at her home just prior to the meeting.

With best wishes to you and Mrs. Himman, and looking forward to seeing you Thursday, I am

Mr. Dave Horkmans,
Army-Navy Hospital,
Hot Springs, Arkansas.

Dear Dave:

I dropped in at the postoffice yesterday to mail a book and found much to my surprise that you had gone to Hot Springs quite some time ago. I did not notice the account in the paper, and when the boys told me at the postoffice I was greatly surprised.

I sincerely trust that your rest down there has done you worlds of good and that you are feeling much as if you were your old self again. I understand from the boys that Mrs. Horkmans drove you down, but that she has returned.

Lots of good luck to you, Dave, and be sure to get back in time for that Kansas State game on November 3rd, that is if you can do so without endangering your health.

The boys are starting for Oklahoma tomorrow and there are some who believe that Gwinn has the wizardry to play them a close game. However, the majority feel there is just too much power at Norman for Gwinn's immature charges.

With all good luck to you for your health, happiness and general well-being, I am

Very sincerely yours,

Mr. Floyd Hanson,
Sabetha High School,
Sabetha, Kansas.

Dear Floyd:

I recently received a letter from Dr. Wrightman in which he told me that he had been to see Fred and found him in good health and working hard. I presume that Fred is at the University of Missouri, his father's old school. Do you know if I am correct in this?

Dr. Wrightman also wrote about you, and confidentially I am quoting this paragraph for you and your wife to see:

"Regarding Mr. Hanson, I am glad to say that he has more than come up to our expectations. He is getting along very well with the boys and they seem to cooperate and work for him very hard. In our conference, he has won two games and lost one. The one lost should have been a tied game. He is also doing well in his class work so that I feel, altogether, that we are very fortunate in having chosen him for the place. I want to thank you for your cooperation in helping us to get such a good man."

I thought this would make you happy. Keep very close to Dr. Wrightman and the other influential people there, and keep their friendship, as it means so much at a place like this.

With all good wishes to you and Mrs. Hanson, I am

Very sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education and Recreation,

Mr. Ralph Hemerway,
Minneapolis, Kansas.

Dear Mr. Hemerway:

I just find that I will have to leave on Monday, the 27th, for Cleveland to be there the 28th and 29th, and therefore it will be impossible for me to speak at the Minneapolis High School on the 27th.

I extend my regrets to Gerald Barker and hope that you will give me a rain check for some time in the near future.

In a conference this morning with Owin Henry and Vic Hurt, I asked Vic Hurt if it would be possible for him to go to Minneapolis on that date if you should ask him, and he told me he would save that date if you desired it. If you would write Mr. Hurt I would greatly appreciate it.

I am not trying to pick a speaker for you, but Mr. Hurt knows Kansas, and played at the College of Emporia under Mr. Henry.

I sincerely trust that my absence will not prove any inconvenience to you.

Very sincerely yours,

Friend Phog:

I have just been talking to our school superintendent, Carl Igel, and he especially mentioned the trouble you went to and the fine attention you gave to the boys of our high school senior class when they visited the University last week. Mr. Igel states that you went to unusual lengths to entertain them, taking the fellows swimming, etc.

I thought you might like to know that an old timer like myself that only sees you to say "Hello" every two or three years, gets a little thrill out of such a report. Let me add my thanks for your special courtesies to our youngsters from Minneapolis.

Cordially,

Mr. E. S. Hickey,
Creighton University,
Omaha, Nebraska.

Dear Eddie:

I made a class room film for the Eastman Kodak Company at Rochester, New York, as a part of their teaching films division series. This is not a talkie, however. It gives all the fundamentals, the pivoting and passing, and I think it is very valuable for high school coaches and players to see.

The University of Kansas Extension Division has a couple of reels which they rent. I imagine that many of the college and university extension divisions also have this film for rent. If you should desire to procure the one here at the University of Kansas I suggest that you write to Mr. Fred S. Montgomery, of the Bureau of Visual Instruction.

The Seal-O-San Company has a picture which would be free if you could get it. And then of course Chuck Taylor has the movie-talkie which you have doubtless seen. It may be worn out by now because it has been used a great many times.

I am glad to know you are expecting to attend the Kansas City meetings.

December 18, 1939

Dear

Dr. Allen

You may recall the booklet issued about two and a half years ago, illustrating some of the work of this office on the design of facilities for recreation and athletics during the 15 year period 1922-1937. Since then I have continued to serve on similar projects for institutions, municipalities, clubs and individuals, including: Colgate, Harvard, Cornell and Brown Universities; the Loomis School, Groton School, Episcopal High School; the Town of Ridgefield, Conn.; the City of Lynchburg, Va. About 60% of these commissions might be termed, in the language of trade, "repeat orders".

In view of the present uncertainty of world economic conditions I find some people are postponing the construction of projects of this kind. This of course tends to produce a shortage of work in my office and makes it more difficult for me to keep my organization ready and available. Until the present trying times have passed, therefore, I am offering to render preliminary services, on needed projects for which construction funds may not be now available, at less than usual fees. This temporary expedient works out, I feel, to the advantage of all concerned: to my clients in enabling them to make preparation for recreation projects efficiently and more economically, to me in enabling me to keep my organization going.

These projects differ radically in many features from ordinary types of engineering or architectural design and this makes experienced services such as those of this office particularly useful in helping to plan for the best and most economical results.

Because of the limitations rightly imposed upon professionally practicing engineers, I must rely principally upon my clients and friends to tell others of my work and to advise me of projects on which my services would be useful. If you know of any project involving the construction of new, or the alteration and improvement of old, recreation facilities, even one which must await better economic conditions before building, will you not please let me know and permit me the opportunity to discuss the possibilities with those in charge?

Faithfully yours,

Gavin Hadden
