Mr. Edgar Hollis, Sr.,
Fredonia, Kansas.

Dear Edgar:

I have been expecting to write you for two months, but each time I have put it off. I noticed where your son has been returned from the hospital and I was very, very anxious about his outcome. I was hoping sincerely that he would have a complete recovery. It was a very tough break for you and the boy.

I am leaving tonight for Atlanta, but I could not leave without writing you and letting you know how sincerely I am pulling for him. Fifteen years ago I lost my oldest son, and I know just what a scar on the inner feelings an injury of this must make.

My kindest regards and best wishes to you and your good wife, and sincere wishes for your son's speedy recovery.

Cordially yours,

Director of Physical Education and Recreation,
Varsity Basketball Coach.
