

I trust that you have had a fine summer, and of course I find it necessary to qualify that because you have been here in summer school. I should say that I trust you have had a satisfactory summer, and I hope that you will have a great year next year, Dick, both on the basketball court and in your all-around contacts here at the University.

With best wishes, I am

Very sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education and Recreation,
Varsity Basketball Coach.
